2019 Advocacy Day to End Sexual Violence

92 Meetings

Thank you!

Over 100 People
in Attendance

Over 100 advocates, survivors, and community members joined in OAESV's 2019 Advocacy Day to End Sexual Violence on April 8th. Our program included remarks from Attorney General Yost and the Office of Governor DeWine. Panelists included Senator Stephanie Kunze and Representatives Galonski and Lanese. Attendees conducted meetings with 92 legislative offices, focusing on increasing the Rape Crisis Centers budget line item to $3 million per fiscal year. Thank you to all lawmakers and participants for bringing sexual violence survivor priorities to the forefront of Statehouse discussions!

Moving forward, we need to continue this momentum and continue reminding our Ohio legislators about the importance of anti-sexual violence work and about all of the support we need from them in order to make our work effective.

Rape Crisis Centers Line Item Update

On Thursday, May 2nd, we received news that the Ohio House not only accepted Representative Lanese's amendment to increase the rape crisis centers line item to $3 Million, but it allocated $4.45 Million per fiscal year!

OAESV has continued its efforts, turning its focus to the Senate. We will provide testimony on May 14th to the Senate Finance subcommittee hearing the budget bill and will continue our resource and outreach efforts to ensure this amount remains in the Senate's final budget.

Thank you to all who've taken part in this collective effort!
