Dedicated to confronting oppression and eliminating sexual violence

Have You Registered for Shine the Light?

SHINE
THE
TO END SEXUAL VIOLENCE

Our 5th Annual Shine the Light to End Sexual Violence fundraiser is coming up on September 21, 2019. We are so happy to invite you to this powerful event, where we gather together, hear from amazing speakers, and raise funds for our OAESV projects.

We are so honored to host Kenyette Tisha Barnes as our 2019 keynote speaker. Kenyette is "a political strategist, lobbyist, public speaker, trainer, mother and CEO of Nia Vizyon, LLC, a social justice, consulting and political strategy lobbying firm; and the National Co-Founder of #MuteRKelly." She is best known for her work with the Georgia General Assembly including lobbying for HIV advocacy, anti-human trafficking, domestic violence, post-partum depression, special education, and voter's rights. Hearing from Kenyette is just one of many benefits of attending our event; we hope to give you this in return for your generous donation of time and money.

We receive various grant funding throughout the year, and we're extremely thankful for this. However, these funds do not cover all of the projects and services that we provide. This is where the importance of fundraising from our supporters comes in.

We require your support in order to keep our organization going. We hope to see you in Cincinnati on 9/21. The funds from your ticket purchase go to our projects and services, which benefit survivors and the advocates who serve them. You will also have the opportunity to support us by purchasing raffle tickets for the thoughtful gift baskets that we've received from various donors.

See you there!

Click to get your tickets!

Tickets: $75, including buffet-style brunch and two tickets for the mimosa bar.

What We've Been Up To

BEYOND THE BREAKTHROUGH

The 2019 National Sexual Assault Conference

"The way that agencies that collaborated to provide amazing plenaries and workshops for 1700 participants was amazing!" -- Ann Brandon

"NSAC brought us together to hear from educators across the nation. The experiences shared at state, local, and national levels is vital to inform our efforts in Ohio as we all endeavor to respond to and prevent violence for all survivors!" -- Becca Getson

"NSAC is always a great opportunity for sexual assault professionals to network, learn, and grow. Ohio had huge representation this year in attendees as well as presenters. We are thankful for the opportunity to attend, and I hope many more directors and staff can join us next year." -- Rosa Beltré

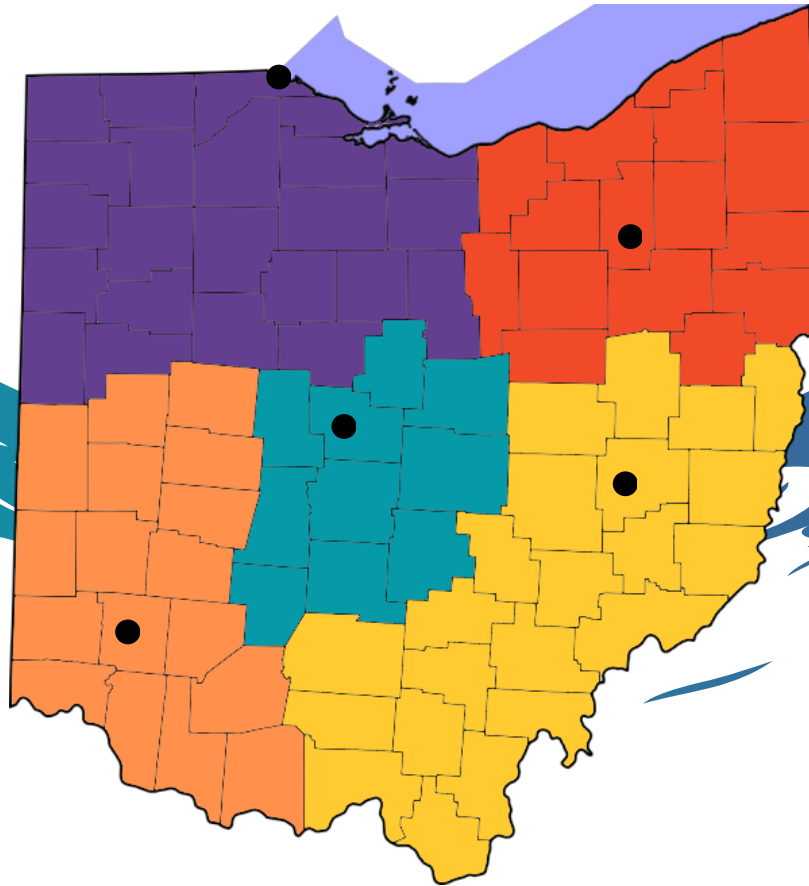

"Being in community with our colleagues from across the nation at NSAC was so motivating. We are reminded that we are not alone in this work, and that there is constant innovation." -- Taylr-Ucker-Lauderman

"I always appreciate the opportunity to attend NSAC as it is a great way to learn about the most recent research, trends and work being done in the sexual violence field. It is a wonderful time to connect with others from around the country who are also striving to improve services for survivors of sexual violence and increase effectiveness of prevention efforts." -- Megan Jones-Williams
