Prepare to be a resource

Routinely include instructional information in monthly newsletters, on bulletin boards, and in marriage preparation classes and sponsor educational seminars on sexual assault.

Educate the Congregation

Make the church, temple, mosque, or synagogue a trusting place for victims of violence. Display materials that include local, state and national hotlines for these victims.

Become a safe place

Include a local sexual assault program in donations and community service projects.

Partner with existing resources

Volunteer to serve on the board of directors at the local sexual assault program or train to become a crisis volunteer.

Lead by example

An individual with a history of sex offenses should have limited congregational involvement.
