

Teal Talk: Trailer

[Taylr] Hello and welcome to Teal Talk, we're your hosts Taylr Ucker-Lauderman and Laurie Hamame. This is a podcast where we discuss issues affecting survivors of sexual violence in Ohio. We interview professionals in the field to help spark conversation and break down barriers to building communities free from sexual violence. So, who are we? We are the Ohio Alliance to End Sexual Violence—that's OAESV for short. As Ohio's statewide coalition, we advocate for comprehensive responses and rape crisis services for survivors.

[Laurie] We recognize that intersections of different types of oppression and discrimination all contribute to a culture of violence. So, we want to empower communities to prevent that harm, and to honor the wide variety of identities and backgrounds that exist. That's where you come in! We turn to you, our audience, for questions and topics to discuss, and to be a part of the solution to ending sexual violence once and for all! As we know, there is power and strength in the collective. Join us every episode for discussions that will close the gap between where we are right now and where we want to be. Let's dive in!
