

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT
Resource Sharing Project
Sexual Assault Services Program (SASP) Technical Assistance
Provider

ABOUT THE NORTH CAROLINA COALITION AGAINST SEXUAL ASSAULT (NCCASA)

The North Carolina Coalition Against Sexual Assault (NCCASA) is a nonprofit organization that serves as an inclusive alliance working to end sexual assault and human trafficking through education, advocacy, and legislation. NCCASA provides prevention education, intervention resources, and public policy to end all forms of sexual assault. Our dedicated staff works with over 70 rape crisis centers across the state in addition to the military, law enforcement, college campuses, attorneys, and allied professions to create a coordinated response to sexual assault.

ABOUT THE RESOURCE SHARING PROJECT (RSP)

The Resource Sharing Project (RSP) is a comprehensive technical assistance project that has served all state and territorial sexual assault coalitions for 20 years, evolving alongside coalitions and the field. The RSP provides a blend of technical assistance, training, support, peer-based dialogue, and resource development that specifically meets the unique needs of the 56 state and territory sexual assault coalitions.

JOB TITLE: Resource Sharing Project (RSP) Sexual Assault Services Program (SASP) Technical Assistance Provider

POSITION STATUS: Full time, exempt that is solely grant-funded. This position has the options to be hybrid with physical in-office flexibilities.

REPORTS TO: Program Director

WORK HOURS: General business hours with significant travel required when safely possible.

PRIMARY OBJECTIVES: NCCASA is seeking a full-time Technical Assistance Provider to develop and provide technical assistance, training, and products to Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) Sexual Assault Services Program (SASP) Formula Grantees regarding implementing SASP funds in all 56 states and territories. The SASP funding is the first and only federal funding stream solely dedicated to the provision of direct intervention and related assistance for victims of sexual assault. At the federal level, it is administered by the Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) in the Department of Justice and passed down to administering offices at each state and territory.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities include the following. Other duties may be assigned:

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Provide timely, responsive technical assistance and capacity building, using multiple methods, to SASP administrators. Technical assistance ranges from proactive to responsive, brief to intensive.
- Create content for publications and trainings, specifically for SASP administrators, that address the administrator role, need for sexual assault services, relationship building, culturally specific services and other topics needed for administrators as they implement the SASP formula program.
- Host webinars twice a month, peer learning opportunities and/or topical calls based on the needs and requests of SASP administrators.
- Hosts national and regional meetings and trainings. Topics discussed and addressed in these events will reflect the needs of state and territory SASP administrators, emerging trends in the anti-sexual assault field, and grant management information.
- Provide technical assistance visits to state or territories that include activities created together with the anti-sexual assault coalition and SASP administrator.
- Actively participate in project team meetings to provide input regarding deliverables, timelines, and process.
- Work with RSP's rural project and coalition technical assistance providers to inform the content and resource development to address emerging needs, advocacy needs and organizational practices.
- Research solutions to complex problems.

KEY LIVED EXPERIENCES, SKILLSETS AND ATTRIBUTES SOUGHT IN THE RESOURCE SHARING PROJECT SEXUAL ASSAULT SERVICES PROGRAM TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROVIDER:

- At least 2-4 years' experience of providing sexual assault services OR working within the anti-sexual violence movement OR serving as a grant administrator.
- Have a sound knowledge of sexual violence, anti-oppression, and social justice.
- We value knowledge and wisdom from a range of sources, from life experience to research to storytelling traditions and everything in between.
- Authentic relationship building skills that allow for trust and accountability amongst OVW program manager and SASP administrators.
- Strong written and oral communication skills, including the ability to deliver technical assistance via phone and email.

- Ability to adopt a capacity-and consensus-building working style, supporting SASP Administrators to develop their own goals and strategies.
- Ability to grow, learn, lead, follow, organize, vision, and follow through on projects.

COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY:

Commitment to multicultural perspective in outreach and services delivery and commitment to social change.

SALARY AND BENEFITS:

The salary for this position is $60,000 with an excellent benefits package that includes, health, dental, and life insurance, retirement, paid leave, and flexible hours.

HOW TO APPLY:

All applications must be submitted by email. No phone calls please. Please send cover letter and resume in Word or PDF, using the subject RSP SASP Technical Assistance Provider at tracy@nccasa.org. Applications accepted until 5 pm on Friday, March 22, 2024.

OUR HIRING PROECESS:

Step 1: Selected candidates will receive a writing prompt to complete within a deadline.

Step 2: Selected candidates will have Zoom Conference call with NCCASA's Executive Director and RSP's Co-Director.

We are hoping to make an offer by May 2024.